T is centain, that the Great Ge-T is contain, that the Great General of the Crown has been for former time, aiming at a Confederacy; to drive on which Project, he constantly in the upon an Augmentation of National Troops; as to was shown long ago prefented a Memorial to the principal Palatines, fetting forth, That, in the present Situation of Things, the Kingdom could not be fafe, if the Army was not put on a bet-could not be fafe, if the Army was not put on a beter Foot. But as fueb an Augmentation must necessarily be attended with a very great Increase of Expence, both in levying and in paying such additional Troops, the Motion has hitherto met with a very warm Opposi-tion; which is so far from discouraging the Crown-General and his Party, that they labour more incessionly than ever to bring it about ; and it is even thought they will infift on calling an extraordinary Dyer with this View, in order to guard against so troublesome a Meanover, October 8. Prince Sherbetoff, the Ruffin Minister, was magnificently entertain'd at Dinner on the rft of this Month, by the British Secretary, Lord Cartert. His Excellency goes to Court frequently, and is extremely well received; it is believed he will re-main here til the Marriage of the Princess Louisa is over. We talk here very confidently, of a Match beother Princess of Great Britain; which is faid to be in great Forwardness, at least, if not actually concluded. There never were so many Horses seen at any Fair, as at this which is now held here; nor did they ever go off quicker, or at a higher Price. Most of them are bought, as is presented, for the Use of the Emperor; but we rather think, that his Cavalry is remounting for the Service of another Prince. There is great Joy here, on the Success of the new Navigation between this City and that of Bremen, of which Trial was made last Week; and by the Help of the Sluice at Herenhausen, a Bost was forced up as high as the Bridge of Linden, which is very near the Suburbs of that City. A Synod of the Reformed Churches is actually called, and will certainly fet here next Week, with a View to regulate the Difputes that have been already mentioned; and it would certainly have fet before this Time, but that it was thought proper to allow a certain Space for the Collection of the Poor's Money, to get it in, and to make up their Accounts. According to some Advices from Spire and Worms, the French seem inclined to extend their Winter Quarters beyond the Rhine, paying Ready Money however for all their Provisions; and if so, the Alles will certainly follow their Example. The Princess Louis is expected here To-morrow. The Earl of Hyndford, who arrived here lately from Berlin, met with a most gracious Reception from his Majesty, who after-wirds conferred with him for two Hours in his Coset; and it is believed, that his Lordship will not return to Berlin till the King sets out for London. On the 5th his Majesty, the Duke of Cumberland, and the Princess Mary, faw the Tragedy of Maximinian; to which was added a little Force, called, Stay for me under the Elm. Yesterday his Majesty and their Royal Highnesses saw the Three Ingrateful Sons, a new Play, which was performed with vatt Applause. Mr. Boyer, Dancing Master to the Court, performs every Night, to the Satisfaction of all the Spectators.

Oppenheim, November 6. The English and Hanove-rian Hospitals remains still at Oosthoven and Westhoven, from whence great Numbers of Soldiers march every Diy to join their respect ve Corps. On the ad no less than so marched thro' this City in perfect Health, and in high Spirits. Tho' most of the Sicknesses were ocfion'd by their eating too much Fruit, yet all the Prefectual; but as the Fruits grow riper, they do not quite much Mifchief.

Bruffels, November 7. We are in great Expectation here of feeing Prince Charles of Lorrain this Winter, and it is faid, that his Apartments are speedily to be put Order for his Reception. The Couriers between Paris nd Berlin, and between the first mention'd Court and If the Courts of the North, are more frequent than wer; there is feldom a Week but four or five pass thro' his City. The English Guards are expected here in a W Dave.

AMERICA Bofton, September 15. Last Thursday William Bolland, Elg; Advocate-General of this Province, was married to Mrs. Frances Shirley, fecond D. ughter to his Ex-

Cellenry our Governor.

Last Tuesday the Regiment of Militia in this Town, under the Command of the Honourable Jacob Wendell, Esq. made a very handsome Appearance on the Common; where they were reviewed by his Excellency our Captain-General and Commander in Chief, who was attended by his Honour the Lieutenam Governor, with the Hon. Gentlemen of his Majesty's Council, and several other Gentlemen. As his Excellency pass'd, he received the Compliments of the Commission Officers in their respective Poss, by their performing the Standing Salure. The Regiment afterwards proceeded from the Field into King-street, where they were review'd in their Field into King-street, where they were review'd in their March by his Excellency from the Balcony of Col. Win-slow's House; and receiv'd again the Compliments of the Officers, who perform'd the Marching Salute. The Regiment being embodied, three Vollies were fired, fuccreded by three Huzzas, in Token of Joy, on the Account we have had of the Success of his Majesty's victorious Arms, and the Preservation of his Majesty's Life in the late Battle. On the fame joyful Occasion, the Guns at his Majesty's Castle William, and those of the South and North Battery were discharged. And the Ge. neral Cour: being fitting, a publick Entertainment was made by their Order in the Court-House in the Evening, which was concluded with great Demonstrations of Loyaltv.
